Welcome

MESSAGE FROM OUR CEO

José Antonio Folgado

It is a pleasure to welcome you to our exciting mycological world.

Each of our products is the result of a deep respect for the land and the dedication of our team, who works diligently to bring exceptional ingredients to your table.

We invite you to discover our selection and enjoy the authentic taste of nature.

José Antonio Folgado

OUR COMPANY

Honza is a family business with a solid track record in the sector of collecting and marketing wild mushrooms and truffles. Founded in 2002 in Zamora (Spain), our company has grown with the firm commitment to offer products of the highest quality, carefully selected in their natural environment.

Since our beginnings, we have worked hand in hand with local collectors and mycological experts to guarantee the best selection of mushrooms and truffles, always respecting the natural cycles and promoting sustainable practices.

Our passion for gastronomy and respect for nature have made us a benchmark in the market, providing exclusive ingredients to distributors, chefs and gourmet cuisine lovers.

At Honza, we are committed to excellence at every stage of the process, from harvesting to distribution, ensuring freshness, traceability and unrivalled flavour in every product.

If you are looking for quality mushrooms and truffles,
we are your best choice.
